Tom Gould presents a Sneak Preview of a CD he is working on with the Bossa Nova Beatniks which will be released in late spring of 2017.

Enjoy a “fly on the wall” experience of a vocal session in the recording studio. You will hear the raw studio tracks before any mixing, editing or added effects.

The musicians are George Vahamonde - Drums, Ron Rahilly - Guitar, & Tom Gould - Bass & Vocal.

The intent is to show that making music is a lifelong activity that can bring joy and fulfillment regardless of whether you do it for a living or just for fun.

This part of the show begins at 7:15 pm.
