Gianna Gotti, the Athlete of The Month for the Lady Baymen basketball team, led the team to record of 6-2. She averaged 25 points per game in December, and earned MVP honors in the Lady Baymen tournament, as well as The Freeport Lady Red Devil tournament. Gianna was also named one of The Top 50 Basketball Players by Newsday, and is currently the sixth leading scorer on Long Island.

Off the court, Gianna and her teammates partnered with The Gardiner Foundation to create a toy and book drive for under privileged youths in The Bronx. Their efforts provided 200 books and toys to children what would not have had Christmas without their efforts.

Keith Cassar is the January Athlete of the month for the Baymen Wrestling team. Keith is currently ranked second in Nassau County Division 2 at the 106 pound weight class. To date, Keith has posted an undefeated record of 17 - 0, including wins over wrestlers ranked on Long Island and in Nassau County Division 1. Keith has wrestled in four tournaments and taken first place in all of them. His hard work during practice sets the tone for the team each day, and his dedication to the sport is a blueprint for the future success of the Baymen Wrestling Team.

Laura Angelone is having an astounding Winter Track season. Laura has emerged as one of the county's best 600 meter runners. Recently at the Conference 6 Championship, Laura Angelone won the 600 meters race with a time of 1:50.24; earlier in the meet Laura finished second in the 3000 meters and later went on to anchor the 4x400 meter relay team, that finished in third place. Laura's remarkable night helped the girl's team finish in a tie for third place in overall team championship competition.
